

MALDIVES WEDDINGS

RENEWAL OF VOWS IN MALDIVES

Legal weddings

Weddings in the Maldives between foreign nationals are not legally binding, even though the day is very real, complete with a ceremony, it will not be recognised when you get back to South Africa. You will need to complete the legalities here at home

Renewal of Vows:

This is a non-legal ceremony requiring a master of ceremonies to perform the ceremony and issue a certificate. Individual resort packages are applicable for the Renewal of Vows. There are the options of a traditional Maldivian ceremony or a more western style celebration. Costs for a Renewal of Vows is anything from $550 to $10,000 and would generally include the services of a wedding coordinator, decorate venue, simple bridal bouquet, simple wedding cake, wedding music, and a turndown service

Should you want to expand, optional services are available for both options for example:

- Bridal hairstyling from $150
- Solo guitarist from $500
- Bodu Beru from $210
- Special dinner from $450 per couple
- Extra adults joining the dinner from $120 per person
- Flowers from $75 for bouquet and buttonhole
- Photography from $100

Relax, we've got your holiday

Correct at the time of going to print Dec 2023